The Massachusetts Bar Association's Energy and Environment Task Force is askign lawyers throughout to state to adopt the MBA's green guidelines as the next step of the MBA Lawyers Eco-Challnege.

The association put out the call this week when it released its MBA Environmental Pledge.

The MBA has partnered with the Conservation Law Foundation, an advocacy organization that works to protect New England's environment, to offer the initiative.

The new guidelines focus on eight core areas of sustainability: energy conservation, paper reduction, recycling, greenhouse gas reduction, environmentally conscious purchases,
