

Students across state set to state their cases

PATRIOT LEDGER STAFF

High school students are taking on the roles of lawyers and witnesses as part of the Massachusetts Bar Association's 25th annual Mock Trial Program.

More than 100 teams will go head-to-head in courtrooms across the state, facing off in trials judged by local lawyers.

They will argue a case concerning a person who lost a daughter's college fund after investing it with a brokerage firm's financial adviser. Who is to blame for the loss?
