WELLESLEY RESIDENT, BOSTON ATTORNEY APPOINTED CO-CHAIR OF THE MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S HEALTH LAW SECTION

Wellesley resident Susan G. Anderson has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as co-chair of the association's Health Law Section. She is general counsel for the Massachusetts Executive Office of Elder Affairs, and a senior fellow of the Kennedy School of Government of Harvard University.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Health Law Section, one of 15, is designed to improve the professional competence of attorneys dealing with health care issues through seminars and publications. It strives to bring together all members interested in the practice and delivery of health care.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
