WEST ROXBURY RESIDENT, BOSTON ATTORNEY APPOINTED CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S CIVIL LITIGATION SECTION

West Roxbury resident Jeffrey N. Catalano has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as the chair of the association's Civil Litigation Section. Catalano is a partner in the law firm of Todd & Weld LLP in Boston. His practice consists of representing victims of catastrophic injuries in the areas of medical negligence, product liability, class action and other personal injury cases.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Civil Litigation Section, one of 15, meets with decision-makers and experts at seminars and informal forums, and is regularly involved with such issues as workers' compensation; auto insurance; management of the trial court; tort reform and discovery rules.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
