NORTH ATTLEBORO RESIDENT AND ATTORNEY APPOINTED CO-CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S GENERAL PRACTICE SECTION

North Attleboro resident Patrick Francomano has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as co-chair of the association's General Practice, Solo & Small Firm Section. Francomano currently practices at the Law Office of Patrick Francomano, in North Attleboro, where he concentrates on civil and criminal litigation.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's General Practice, Solo & Small Firm Section, one of 15, assists members by studying the needs and concerns of solo, small firm practitioners; providing a forum and clearinghouse for the exchange and dissemination of ideas and information; motivating and assisting the MBA to address the section's needs and concerns; and encouraging, identifying and promoting programs, benefits and services of interest to solo and small firm practitioners.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
