WELLESLEY RESIDENT AND ATTORNEY APPOINTED CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S FAMILY LAW SECTION

Wellesley resident and attorney Fern L. Frolin has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as the chair of the association's Family Law Section. Frolin is an attorney, mediator and partner at Grindle, Robinson, Goodhue & Frolin in Wellesley.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Family Law Section, one of 15, is designed to improve the Probate and Family Court's accessibility and efficiency for the benefit of lawyers, judges, staff and the public by keeping its members current with educational seminars, updates on legislative activity and bench/bar networking opportunities.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
