WEST ROXBURY RESIDENT, BOSTON ATTORNEY APPOINTED CO-CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S BUSINESS LAW SECTION

West Roxbury resident Robert J. Kerwin has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as co-chair of the association's Business Law Section. Kerwin practices at Tarlow, Breed, Hart, & Rodgers PC, in Boston where he concentrates on business litigation.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Business Law Section, one of 15, is designed to improve the practice of both in-house counsel and outside business counsel through seminars, practice forums, legislation and committee activity in a wide variety of areas, such as high technology, small business, bankruptcy, law, banking and commercial law.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
