Hopkinton resident Peter D. McDermott has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as co-chair of the association's Business Law Section. The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law.
