DOWNTOWN BOSTON RESIDENT, BOSTON ATTORNEY APPOINTED CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS SECTION

Downtown Boston resident Kevin G. Powers has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as the chair of the association's Individual Rights & Responsibilities Section. Powers is a partner at the Boston law firm, Rodgers, Powers & Schwartz LLP in Boston, where he concentrates on labor and employment law.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Individual Rights & Responsibilities Section, one of 15, advocates for the protection of individual rights, with an emphasis on those who are under-represented in the judicial system.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
