BROOKLINE RESIDENT, BOSTON ATTORNEY APPOINTED CHAIR OF MASSACHUSETTS BAR ASSOCIATION'S ACCESS TO JUSTICE SECTION

Brookline resident Ellen J. Zucker has been appointed by Massachusetts Bar Association President David W. White Jr. as the chair of the association's Access to Justice Section. Zucker is a partner in the litigation group at Burns & Levinson LLP, where she concentrates her practice in the areas of employment law, civil litigation and white collar criminal defense.

Zucker assumes her role with the MBA as she concludes her term chairing MassEquality.Org, the coalition organization that spear-headed the successful campaign to protect equal marriage rights in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Bar Association's Access to Justice Section, one of 15, serves to support lawyers who provide representation through legal service organizations, court-appointed criminal defense or other pro-bono activities.

The Massachusetts Bar Association sections provide lawyers with up-to-date information on specific areas of law, monitor law-related legislation, sponsor professional education programs and provide information on the law for the general public.

Incorporated in 1911, the Massachusetts Bar Association is a non-profit organization that serves the legal profession and the public by promoting the administration of justice, legal education, professional excellence and respect for the law. The MBA represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals across the commonwealth.
