Free legal advice available Nov. 28 through Ask A Lawyer program presented by Mass. Bar Association and WBZ Call for Action

BOSTON, Mass. — Massachusetts residents can receive free legal advice on Wednesday, Nov. 28, by participating in the Ask A Lawyer call-in program, presented by the Massachusetts Bar Association, WBZ Call for Action, WBZ NewsRadio 1030 and WBZ-TV.

Volunteer lawyers from the Mass. Bar Association will be at the studios of WBZ-TV to field phone calls from 7 to 9 p.m., on Nov. 28, from Massachusetts residents who have legal concerns or problems. The legal advice is provided for free as a public service. The Ask A Lawyer phone number is (617) 787-7070. If a caller gets a busy signal, they are asked to hang up and try again. Normal telephone charges will apply.

“There’s no substitute for legal advice from a lawyer, and the Ask A Lawyer program makes it easy for people to speak directly with a qualified lawyer who can answer their questions and point them in the right direction,” said MBA President Christopher A. Kenney. “The Massachusetts Bar Association and our partners at WBZ NewsRadio, WBZ-TV and WBZ Call for Action are proud to offer this vital resource to support those in our community who otherwise might not be able to afford a lawyer.”

While volunteer lawyers field calls, Kenney will appear as a guest on WBZ NewsRadio’s NightSide with Dan Rea, where he will discuss the ways in which the Massachusetts Bar Association works to serve lawyers and all Massachusetts residents through programs, such as its monthly Dial-A-Lawyer program, Lawyer Referral Service (www.masslawhelp.com) and other public initiatives.

WBZ Call for Action, in existence for 47 years, is a non-profit telephone information, referral and action service dedicated to resolving people’s problems. A free service, it is a member of the national organization, Call For Action, Inc.
